

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Agolagh Heights	Áth Gabhlach, 'forked ford'	Arda Áth Gabhlach	Agolagh is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glendun
Aird Clachan	Aird, 'headland'.	Clachan na hAirde	Aird is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Dunseverick
Aird Cottages	Aird, 'headland'.	Iostáin na hAirde	Aird is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Dunseverick
Alanvale Park		Páirc Ghleann Ailéin	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Altananam Park	Allt an Anama, 'valley of the soul'	Páirc Allt an Anama	Altananam is a minor name in Drumawillin townland.	Knocklaid
Ann Street		Sráid Áine	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ardmoyle Park		Páirc Ard na Maoile	Located in the townland of Ballymacdoe, parish of Layd.	Glemaan
Atlantic Avenue	An t-Aigéan Atlantach, the Atlantic Ocean	Ascaill an Aigéin Atlantaigh	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada
Ballaghmore Court	Bealach Mór, 'great road or pass'	Cúirt an Bhealaigh Mhóir	Ballaghmore or Bushmills is a townland in Dunluce parish.	Bushmills
Ballaghmore Road	Bealach Mór, 'great road or pass'	Bóthar an Bhealaigh Mhóir	Ballaghmore or Bushmills is a townland in Dunluce parish.	Bushmills
Ballinlea Road	Baile an Leá, 'townland of the physician'	Bóthar Bhaile an Leá	Ballinlea Lower and Upper are townlands in the parish of Ballintoy.	Dunseverick/ Kinbane/Moss- side & Moyarget
Ballyallaght Farm Cottages	Baile Uí Allachta, 'Allagaty's town' (?)	Iostáin Bhaile Uí Allachta	Ballyallaght is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Dunseverick
Ballybrack Road	An Baile Breac, 'the speckled townland'	Bóthar an Bhaile Bhric	Ballybrack is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glemaan/Glendun
Ballycarry	Baile Carraigh, 'town of the rough ground'	Baile Carraigh	Ballycarry is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballyconagan	Baile Coinneagáin, 'town of Coinneagáin'	Baile Coinneagáin	Ballyconagan is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballycree Cottages		Iostáin Bhaile na Críche	This name could not be traced locally. The local post offices are not aware of such an address.
Ballyemon Road	Gleann Bhaile Éamainn, 'the valley of Éamonn's townland'	Bóthar Bhaile Éamainn	Glenballyemon is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parish of Layd. Ballyemon itself is not a townland, but the name is preserved in the name of the glen and also the river which flows through it.	Glemaan/Glenariff

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Ballygill Middle	Baile Ghaill Láir, 'town of the foreigner'	Baile Ghaill Láir	Ballygill Middle is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballygill North	Baile Ghaill Thuaidh, 'town of the foreigner'	Baile Ghaill Thuaidh	Ballygill North is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballygill South	Baile Ghaill Theas, 'town of the foreigner'	Baile Ghaill Theas	Ballygill South is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballykenver Road	(?) Baile Cinn Bhiorra	Bóthar Bhaile Ceannbhair	Ballykenver is a townland in the parish of Armoy.	Armoy
Ballynagard Cottages	Baile na gCeard, 'town of the tradesmen'	Iostáin Bhaile na gCeard	Ballynagard is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island. Note that there is a townland of the same name in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballynagard Road	Baile na gCeard, 'town of the tradesmen'	Bóthar Bhaile na gCeard	Ballynagard is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin. Note that there is a townland of the same name on Rathlin Island.	Glenshesk
Ballynagard	Baile na gCeard, 'town of the tradesmen'	Baile na gCeard	Ballynagard is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island. Note that there is a townland of the same name in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballynarry Road	Baile an Fharaidh, 'townland of the platform/ledge'.	Bóthar Bhaile an Fharaidh	Ballynarry Lower is a townland in the parish of Billy. Ballynarry Upper is a townland in the parish of Derrykeighan.	Ballylough
Ballyness Park	Baile an Easa, 'town of the cataract or waterfall'.	Páirc Bhaile an Easa	Ballyness is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Ballylough
Ballynoe	An Baile Nua, 'the new town'	An Baile Nua	Ballynoe is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Ballyvennaght Road	Baile Bheannacht, 'townland of the blessings'.	Bóthar Bhaile Bheannacht	Ballyvennaght is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glenshesk
Bay Road		Bóthar an Chuain	Named after Cushendun Bay.	Glendun
Bayview Cottages		Iostáin Radharc an Chuain	Named after Ballycastle Bay. Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Bayview Park		Páirc Radharc an Chuain	Named after Red Bay. Located in the townland of Warren, parish of Layd.	Glengariff
Bayview Road		Bóthar Radharc an Chuain	Named after Ballycastle Bay. Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Beechwood Avenue		Ascaill Choill na bhFeá	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Beechwood Lane		Lána Choill na bhFeá	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Bellisk Drive	Béal Uisce	Céide Bhéal Uisce	Bellisk or Waterford is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glenariff
Bellisk Park	Béal Uisce	Páirc Bhéal Uisce	Bellisk or Waterford is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glenariff
Blackpark Cottages		Iostáin na Páirce Duibhe	Blackpark is a minor name in in Ballintoy Demesne. "The element dubh , 'black' can refer locally to the appearance of basaltic rock (cf. Carnduff in Ramoan parish)." (PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann). It also occurs as a minor name in the townland of Craigalappan.	Glenshesk
Blackpark Road		Bóthar na Páirce Duibhe	Located in Ballyvoy townland. Blackpark may be an unrecorded minor name in Culfeightrin parish. The same name occurs twice in the parish of Ballintoy.	Glenshesk
Bleach Green Apartments		Árasáin an Tuairín	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Bleach Green may be an unrecorded minor name in Ramoan parish.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Boyd Court	de Búit	Cúirt de Búit	The surname Boyd means an inhabitant of the isle of Bute in the Firth of Clyde. The Gaelic name of the island is Bód. In Scotland the surname can be rendered Bóid, which is simply the genitive form of the place-name [Dwelly], but de Búit seems to be the form in use in Ireland [De Bhulbh].	Knocklayd
Bridge Street		Sráid an Droichid	Located in the townlands of Ballaghmore or Bushmills (Dunluce parish) and Magheraboy or Bushmills (Billy parish).	Bushmills
Bridge Street		Sráid an Droichid	Located in the townland of Cushendall.	Glenaan
Broombeg View	Brú Beag, 'fort, little'	Radharc an Bhrú Bhig	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Probably named after the tl of Broom-Beg.	Glentaisie
Broombeg	Brú Beag, 'fort, little'	An Brú Beag	This road is located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. However Broom-Beg is a nearby townland in the same parish.	Glentaisie
Burn Brae		Bráigh an Aillt	The Irish form offered here is a Gaelicisation of Burn Brae, but is not historically attested. According to the VLA website, this road is named Burns Brae.	Dunseverick
Bush Crescent	An Bhuais, 'the cow-like one'	Corrán na Buaise	Located in the townland of Ballyness. Named from the Bush River (< Ir. An Bhuais)	Ballylough
Bush Gardens	An Bhuais, 'the cow-like one'	Garraithe na Buaise	Located in the townland of Ballyness. Named from the Bush River (< Ir. An Bhuais)	Ballylough
Bushford	An Bhuais, 'the cow-like one'	Áth na Buaise	Located in the townland of Clogher North. Named the Bush River (< Ir. An Bhuais)	Bushmills
Cabragh Road	Cabrach, 'rough or unprofitable land'	Bóthar na Cabraí	Cabragh or Cavanmore is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Ballylough/Carmoon
Cairn View		Radharc an Chairn	Cairn View is the name of a group of houses on Fair Hill. Located in Cushendall townland. The name may refer to the nearby townland of Carnahagh or to the raths in Coshkib townland on the south-western slopes of Cross Slieve.	Glenaan

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Cairns Road		Bóthar na gCarn	Located in the townlands of Cushendall and Glenville or Leamore. The name may refer to the nearby townland of Carnahagh or to the raths in Coshkib townland on the south-western slopes of Cross Slieve.	Gleaaan/Glendun
Camán Close		Clós an Chamáin	Camán means a hurling-stick. McQuillan (Mac Uilín) GAC, the local Gaelic club, is particularly strong in hurling.
Camán Crescent		Corrán an Chamáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Camán means a hurling-stick. McQuillan (Mac Uilín) GAC, the local Gaelic club, is particularly strong in hurling.	Dalriada
Camán Drive		Céide an Chamáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Camán means a hurling-stick. McQuillan (Mac Uilín) GAC, the local Gaelic club, is particularly strong in hurling.	Dalriada
Camán Gardens		Garraithe an Chamáin	Camán means a hurling-stick. McQuillan (Mac Uilín) GAC, the local Gaelic club, is particularly strong in hurling.	Dalriada
Camán Park		Páirc an Chamáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Camán means a hurling-stick. McQuillan (Mac Uilín) GAC, the local Gaelic club, is particularly strong in hurling.	Dalriada
Capecastle Road	Ceap Caistéil, 'tillage plot of the castle'	Bóthar Cheap Caistil	Cape Castle is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Carey Mill	Cothraí, name of a population group	Muileann Chathraí	The barony of Cary/Carey gets its name from a population group called Cathraige (PNNI, vol. vii).	Glenshesk
Carnbore Road	Carn Bodhar, 'deaf cairn'	Bóthar an Chairn Bhodhair	Carnbore is a townland in the parish of Billy. What was meant by Carn Bodhar ("deaf cairn") is unclear.	Ballylough/Bushmills/Carnmoon
Carnduff Park	Carn Dubh, 'the black cairn'	Páirc an Chairn Dhuibh	Carnduff is a townland in the parish of Ramoan. The form Páirc an Chairn Duibh (with unlenited d) would also be acceptable. The dentals rule has been overridden in the form provided here as this is the standard in written Modern Irish.	Kinbane
Carnkirk Cottages	Carn Circe, 'the cairn of the hen, i.e. grouse'	Iostáin Charn Circe	Carnkirk is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Dunseverick
Carnlelis Road	Ceathrúin Leithlis, 'quarterland of the half-fort'	Bóthar Cheathrúin Leithlis	Carnlelis is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Dunseverick/Moss-side & Moyarget
Carnmoon View	Carnán Muáin, 'Muáns' Cairn'	Radharc Charnán Muáin	Carnmoon is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Carnmoon
Carn-Neil Park	Carn Néill, 'Niall's cairn'	Páirc Charn Néill	Carn Néill is a cairn high on the mountain, south-east of Glenariff.	Glenariff
Carrickmore Road	An Charraig Mhór, 'the big rock'	Bóthar na Carraige Móire	Runs through the townlands of Broughanlea, Tornabodagh and Tornaroan. Carrickmore may be an unrecorded minor name in the parish of Culfeightrin. There is a place of the same name in Cross townland near Cushendun.	Glenshesk
Carrowcrin Road	Ceathrú an Chrainn, 'quarter of the tree'	Bóthar Cheathrú an Chrainn	Carrowcrin is a townland in the parish of Loughguile.	Armoy

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Church Street		Sráid an Teampaill	Located on the western edge of Bushmills, in the townlands of Glebe and Ballaghmore or Bushmills. St. John the Baptist's Church of Ireland is on this road.	Bushmills
Church View		Radharc na hEaglaise	Church Quarter is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Churchfield Road	Machaire an Teampaill, 'plain of the church'	Bóthar Mhachaire an Teampaill	Churchfield is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glenshesk
Clady Road	Cláidigh, 'mountain stream, torrent'	Bóthar Chláidí	Clady is a townland in the parish of Grange of Inispollan.	Glendun
Clare Avenue	Clár Caisleáin, 'level place of the castle (?)'	Ascaill Chlár Caisleáin	Clare is a townland in the parish of Ramoan. However, this road is located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle).	Dalriada
Clare Court	Clár Caisleáin, 'level place of the castle (?)'	Cúirt Chlár Caisleáin	Clare is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.
Clare Road	Clár Caisleáin, 'level place of the castle (?)'	Bóthar Chlár Caisleáin	Clare is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada/Kinbane
Clare Street	Clár Caisleáin, 'level place of the castle (?)'	Sráid Chlár Caisleáin	Clare is a townland in the parish of Ramoan. However, this road is located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle).	Glentaisie
Cleggan	An Chloigeann, 'the skull'	An Chloigeann	Cleggan is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Clogher Court	Clochiar, 'stony ground'	Cúirt an Chlochair	Clogher North and South are townlands in the parish of Billy.	Bushmills
Clogher Road	Clochiar, 'stony ground'	Bóthar an Chlochair	Clogher North and South are townlands in the parish of Billy.	Bushmills/ Carnmoon/ Dunseverick
Cloughs Road	Na Clocha, 'the stones'	Bóthar na gCloch	Cloughs is a townland in the parish of Layd. Cloughs is a variant spelling of this name.	Glendun
Coastguard Cottages		Iostáin an Gharda Cósta	Located in the townland of Ballintoy Demesne, parish of Ballintoy.	Kinbane
Coast Road		Bóthar an Chósta	This road runs from Cushendall to Glenariff/Waterfoot in the parish of Layd.	Gleaaan/Glenariff
Coleraine Road	Cúil Raithin, 'corner/nook of ferns'	Bóthar Chúil Raithin	Located in the townland of Town Parks (Ballycastle), parish of Ramoan. Coleraine is a university town and has a parish and two baronies named after it (Coleraine and North-East Liberties of Coleraine). The former name of Co. Derry/Londonderry was Co. Coleraine until 1613.	Glentaisie/Knockl ayd
Colman Avenue	Lios Cholmáin, 'Colmán's fort'	Ascaill Cholmáin	Liscolman is a townland in the parish of Billy. There was formerly a fort in the townland, but no trace of it now remains [Dict. Ulst. PN.].	Carnmoon
Community Walk		Siúlán an Phobail	Located in the townland of Moss-side.	Moss-side & Moyarget

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Coolkeeran Road	Cuil Caorthainn, 'corner of the rowan trees'	Bóthar Chúil Caorthainn	Coolkeeran is a townland in the parish of Loughguile.	Armoy
Cozies Road	Cuasa, 'caves'	Bóthar na gCuas	Cozies is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Ballylough/ Carmoon
Craigagh View		Radharc Chreagaí	Craigagh Wood is a minor name in the townland of Ballure. Craigagh itself is an unrecorded minor name.	Glendun
Craigalappin Road	Creag na Leapan, 'The rock of the bed'	Bóthar Chreag na Leapan	Craigalappan is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy. Craigalappin is a variant spelling of this name.	Dunseverick
Craigfad Road	An Chreag Fhada, 'long rock'	Bóthar na Creige Fada	Craigfad is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glenshesk
Craigmacagan	Creag Mhic Agáin, 'the rock of Mac Agáin'	Creag Mhic Agáin	Craigmacagan is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Cromaghs Road	Cromóg, 'sloping land (?)'	Bóthar na Cromóige	Cromaghs is a townland in the parish of Armoy. The English plural -s comes in quite late and there is no evidence for subdivisions of the townland, so the name has been left in the singular.	Armoy
Cushendall Road	Bun Abhann Dalla, 'end of the river Dall'	Bóthar Bhun Abhann Dalla	Cushendall is a townland in the parish of Layd. It is also the name of a Catholic parish.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/ Glenshesk
Cushleake Road	Cois Leice, '(place) beside the flagstone'	Bóthar Chois Leice	Cushleake Mountain is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glendun
Dalriada Avenue	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Ascaill Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glenaan
Dalriada Crescent	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Corrán Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glenaan/Glenariff
Dalriada Drive	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Céide Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glenaan
Dalriada Gardens	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Garraithe Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glentaisie

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Dalriada Gardens	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Garraithe Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glennan
Dalriada Park	Dál Riada, name of a population group	Páirc Dhál Riada	Dál Riada means 'territory of the (descendants of the) ancestor Riada'. This territory was an ancient kingdom in the north-east corner of Ireland. A territory of the same name was established by members of this tribe who colonised part of South-west Scotland, according to tradition in the 5th century AD.	Glennan
Deane Park		Páirc Deane	De Bhulbh shows that there are several origins for Dean(e) in Ireland. As it is not possible to tell the origin of Deane in this particular name, it was decided to leave the name un-gaelicised.	Armoey
Demesne		An Diméin	Demesne is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Distillery Road		Bóthar na Drioglainne	Located in the townland of Magheraboy or Bushmills. The Old Bushmills Distillery is located on this road.	Ballylough/Bushmills
Drones Road	Na Dronna, 'the humps'	Bóthar na nDronn	The Drones is a minor name in Drumdallagh townland.	Armoey
Drumaroan Road	Droim an Ruáin, 'ridge of the red place'	Bóthar Dhroim an Ruáin	Drumaroan is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glenshesk
Drumavoley Grange	Droim Ghabhla (?), 'ridge of the fork'	Gráinseach Dhroim Ghabhla	Drumavoley is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Glenshesk
Drumavoley Park	Droim Ghabhla (?), 'ridge of the fork'	Páirc Dhroim Ghabhla	Drumavoley is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Drumavoley Road	Droim Ghabhla (?), 'ridge of the fork'	Bóthar Dhroim Ghabhla	Drumavoley is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/ Glenshesk
Drumawillin Park	Droim an Mhuilinn, 'ridge of the mill'	Bóthar Dhroim an Mhuilinn	Drumawillin is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklady
Drumnagee Road	Droim na Gaoithe, 'ridge of the wind'	Bóthar Dhroim na Gaoithe	Drumnagee is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Dunseverick
Drumnaheigh Road	Droim na hÁithe, 'ridge of the kiln'	Bóthar Dhroim na hÁithe	Drumnaheigh is a townland in the parish of Grange of Drumtullagh.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Dunamallaght Crescent	Dún na Mallacht, 'fort of the curses'	Corrán Dhún na Mallacht	Located in Drumavoley townland. The fort of Dun a Mallaght is in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. It was supposedly named from some executions performed here during rebellions. Fiachra Mac Gabhann also considers the possibility that Dunamallaght may derive from Dún na Mallachta, 'fort of the (one) curse'.	Bonamargy & Rathlin

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Dunamallaght Park	Dún na Mallacht, 'fort of the curses'	Páirc Dhún na Mallacht	The fort of Dun a Mallaght is in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. It was supposedly named from some executions performed here during rebellions. Fiachra Mac Gabhann also considers the possibility that Dunamallaght may derive from Dún na Mallachta, 'fort of the (one) curse'.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Dunamallaght Road	Dún na Mallacht, 'fort of the curses'	Bóthar Dhún na Mallacht	The fort of Dun a Mallaght is in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. It was supposedly named from some executions performed here during rebellions. Fiachra Mac Gabhann also considers the possibility that Dunamallaght may derive from Dún na Mallachta, 'fort of the (one) curse'.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Dundarave Road		Bóthar Dhún dTairbh	Dundarave is a minor name in Clogher North townland.	Bushmills/Dunseverick
Dunluce Cottages	Dún Libhsí, dún =, 'fort'. The second element is obscure.	Iostáin Dhún Libhsí	A fort at Dunluce (earlier than the current castle ruins) has given its name to a townland, a parish and two baronies (Dunluce Lower and Upper). The second element, Libhsí , may be a personal name. It seems certain that the form Dún-lios , found in the Annals of the Four Masters, was a later re-interpretation rather than the original form.	Bushmills
Dunluce Court	Dún Libhsí, dún =, 'fort'. The second element is obscure.	Cúirt Dhún Libhsí	Located in Clogher North townland, nr. Bushmills. A fort at Dunluce (earlier than the current castle ruins) has given its name to a townland, a parish and two baronies (Dunluce Lower and Upper). The second element, Libhsí , may be a personal name. It seems certain that the form Dún-lios , found in the Annals of the Four Masters, was a later re-interpretation rather than the original form.	Bushmills
Dunluce Manor	Dún Libhsí, dún =, 'fort'. The second element is obscure.	Mainéar Dhún Libhsí	A fort at Dunluce (earlier than the current castle ruins) has given its name to a townland, a parish and two baronies (Dunluce Lower and Upper). The second element, Libhsí , may be a personal name. It seems certain that the form Dún-lios , found in the Annals of the Four Masters, was a later re-interpretation rather than the original form.	Bushmills
Dunluce Road	Dún Libhsí, dún =, 'fort'. The second element is obscure.	Bóthar Dhún Libhsí	Runs from Bushmills to Portrush passing through Dunluce. A fort at Dunluce (earlier than the current castle ruins) has given its name to a townland, a parish and two baronies (Dunluce Lower and Upper). The second element, Libhsí , may be a personal name. It seems certain that the form Dún-lios , found in the Annals of the Four Masters, was a later re-interpretation rather than the original form.	Bushmills
Eagry Gardens	Eachraigh, 'edge/border (?)'	Garraithe Eachrach	Eagry is a townland in the parish of Billy. Locally it is pronounced with 3 syllables. The first rhymes with 'day' and the second is a schwa. The whole word would therefore rhyme with 'vagary'.	Ballylough
Eagry Park	Eachraigh, 'edge/border (?)'	Páirc Eachrach	Eagry is a townland in the parish of Billy. Locally it is pronounced with 3 syllables. The first rhymes with 'day' and the second is a schwa. The whole word would therefore rhyme with 'vagary'.	Ballylough
Elizabeth Place		Plás Eilís	Located in Deffrick townland, parish of Billy.	Cammoon
Elmwood Park		Páirc Choill an Leamháin	Located in Ballyness townland, parish of Billy.	Ballylough

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Esdale Park		Páirc Ghleann an Easa	Located in Ballyness townland, parish of Billy.	Ballylough
Ess-na-Laragh	Eas na Larach, 'waterfall of the mare'	Eas na Lárach	The waterfall, from which this road is named is in a wooded gorge high up in Glenariffe. It resembles a mare's tail when the river is in full spate. The road is in Glenariffe/Waterfoot village.	Glenariff
Fairhill Street		Sráid Chnoc an Aonaigh	Fair Hill is near the centre of Armoy and Fairhill Street is on this low height. An annual fair was held at Armoy on Boxing Day until the early 1950s. There was a market and point-to-point races on this day. Thanks to Mr. Stephen Nicoll of Armoy for this information. According to Samuel Lewis,	Armoy
Fairhill Street		Sráid Chnoc an Aonaigh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Associated with the Ould Lammais Fair.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Glentaie
Fair Hill		Cnoc an Aonaigh	This roads leads from the Curfew Tower in the centre of Cushendall up the steep hill towards Cushendun. Only a small group of houses have Fair Hill as their address. An annual fair was held here. According to Samuel Lewis, writing in 1837, there were fairs in Cushendall chiefly for Raghery	Gleaan
Fairhead Crescent	An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'	Corrán na Binne Móire	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Fair Head is the north-east corner of Ireland. The English name is not a translation of the Irish name, An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'.	Dalriada
Fairhead Road	An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'	Bóthar na Binne Móire	Fair Head is the north-east corner of Ireland. It is located in the townland of Cross. The English name is not a translation of the Irish name, An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'.	Glenshesk
Fairhead View	An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'	Radharc na Binne Móire	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Fair Head is the north-east corner of Ireland. The English name is not a translation of the Irish name, An Bhinn Mhór, 'the big cliff'.	Dalriada
Fairlands		Fearann an Aonaigh	Fairlands is the name of just two houses on the main road to Ballycastle on the northern edge of the village. Fair Hill is near the centre of Armoy. An annual fair was held at Armoy on Boxing Day until the early 1950s. There was a market and point-to-point racing on this day. Thanks to Mr. Stephen Nicoll of Armoy for this information. According to Samuel Lewis, writing in 1837, there were fairs for horses, horned cattle, pigs, corn and butter held on Jan. 25th, Feb. 25th, March. 29th, May 25th, Aug. 16th, Nov. 14th. and Dec. 26th [Topographical Dictionary of Ireland].	Armoy
Fairways		Na Mínligh	A group of new apartments overlooking the golf course at Cushendall [info from Glenariffe PO].	Gleaan
Farranmacallan Road	Fearann Mhic Ailín, 'MacAllen's ploughland'	Fearann Mhic Ailín	Farranmacallan is a townland in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glendun
Feigh Road	Faiche, 'lawn/green'	Bóthar na Faiche	Feigh is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Dunseverick
Fernmount Park		Páirc Thulach na Raithní	Located in the townland of Moyaver Upper.	Armoy
Fogarty Crescent	Ó Fógartaigh	Páirc Uí Fhógartaigh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Garron Road	An Gearrán, 'the horse'	Bóthar an Ghearráin	Garron Point is a distinctive headland in the townland of Galboly Lower. It has rugged cliffs and pinnacles. It is possible that the word in question is gearán , 'a fang', rather than gearrán , 'a colt', and that it refers to a pinnacle at the promontory. There are two such pinnacles visible from Cushendall. However, gearrán , which in Ulster is used for a horse in general, can be applied to stone features such as distinctive cliffs or standing stones.	Glenariff
Gaults Road	Galda, 'foreigner'	Bóthar an Ghallda	It seems likely that this road is named after someone of the surname, Gault, which is an anglicisation of Ir. Gallda 'foreigner'. This is confirmed by Black [Surnames of Scotland] who gives Gault as a variant of Gaul. De Bhulbh notes that this name is common in Antrim, and there is a Gaultstown (minor name) in Finvoy parish.	Glenaan/Glendun
Glassmullen Road	An Glasmhullán, 'the green hillock'	Bóthar an Ghlasmhulláin	Glassmullen is a townland in the parish of Layd. Glassmullen is a variant spelling of this name.	Glenariff
Glebe Cottages		Iostáin na Gléibe	Glebe is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Glebe		An Ghléib	Glebe is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Glen Road	Gleann Aireamh, 'glen of the (?) ploughmen'	Bóthar an Ghleanna	Glen Road is the minor road which runs through Glenariff from Bay townland up to the bottom of the Forest Park.	Glenariff
Glenann Road	Gleann Athain, 'glen of the burial chamber'	Bóthar Ghleann Athain	Glenaan is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parish of Layd. It is also a townland. Glenann is a variant spelling of this name, although it is not derived from the girl's name.	Glendun
Glenariffe Road	Gleann Aireamh, 'glen of the (?) ploughmen'	Bóthar Ghleann Aireamh	Glenariff is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parishes of Ardclinis and Layd. It gives its name to the townlands of Glenariff Mountain Lower, Glenariff Mountain Upper East and Glenariff Mountain Upper West in Ardclinis. Glenariffe and Glenariff are variant spellings of this name.	Glenariff
Glenbank Road		Bóthar Bhruach an Ghleanna	Glenbank House is located in the townland of Aghaleck.	Glenshesk
Glendun Road	Gleann Doinne, 'glen of the river Dun'	Bóthar Ghleann Doinne	Glendun is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parishes of Layd and Grange of Layd. It is name from the river which flows through it.	Glendun
Glenmakeeran Road	Gleann Maí Caorthainn, 'valley of the field of the rowan'	Bóthar Ghleann Maí Caorthainn	Glenmakeeran is a townland in Culfeightrin parish and a glen amongst the hills situated between Cushendun and Ballycastle.	Glenshesk
Glenshesk Court	Gleann Seisc, 'barren valley'	Cúirt Ghleann Seisc	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Glenshesk is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parishes of Ramoan and Culfeightrin.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Glenshesk Road	Gleann Seisc, 'barren valley'	Bóthar Ghleann Seisc	Glenshesk is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parishes of Ramoan and Culfeightrin.	Armoy/Bonamargy & Rathlin
Glenstaghey Road	Glais tSochaí, 'stream of the host'	Bóthar Ghlais tSochaí	Glenstaghey is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy. The first element was originally Ir. glais, 'stream', but has been re-interpreted.	Kinbane

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Glentaisie Drive	Gleann Taise, 'glen of dampness' or 'Taise's glen'	Bóthar Ghleann Taise	Glentaisie is one of the Nine Glens of Antrim and is located in the parish of Ramoan.	Glentaisie
Glentop Road		Bóthar Bharr an Ghleanna	Glentop or Ardaghmore is a townland in Culfeightrin parish.	Glenshesk
Glenvale		An Gleanntán	Located in Bay townland. Glenvale is the name of a village between Ballymoney and Ballymena. However, it seems more likely that this road name is inspired by Glenariff.	Glenariff
Glenview Park		Páirc Radharc an Ghleanna	Located in Knocknacarry townland. Named after Glendun.	Glendun
Glenview Road		Bóthar Radharc an Ghleanna	Glenview House is located in Drumacullin townland.	Glenshesk
Glenville Crescent		Corrán Bhaile an Ghleanna	The name Glenville originally applied to Glenville House, but became an alias for Leamore, the townland name. There was a 19th century fashion for house names in -ville, perhaps with Lat. 'villa' in mind.	Glenaan
Glenville Road		Bóthar Bhaile an Ghleanna	The name Glenville originally applied to Glenville House, but became an alias for Leamore, the townland name. There was a 19th century fashion for house names in -ville, perhaps with Lat. 'villa' in mind.	Glendun
Gortaclee Road	Gort an Chlaí, 'field of the dyke'	Bóthar Ghort an Chlaí	Gortaclee is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenariff
Gortamaddy Drive	Gort an Mhadaidh, 'field of the dog'	Céide Ghort an Mhadaidh	Located in the townlands of Clare and Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Gortamaddy is a townland in the same parish.	Glentaisie
Gortamaddy Park	Gort an Mhadaidh, 'field of the dog'	Páirc Ghort an Mhadaidh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Gortamaddy is a townland in the same parish.	Dalriada/Glentaisie
Gortanclochair Park		Páirc Ghort an Chlochair	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Gracehill Road		Bóthar Chnoc an Ghrásta	Gracehill is a townland in Derrykeighan, first attested under this name in 1827. The name seems to have applied to a house originally, owned by Mr. Henry Irwin Stuart (elsewhere written Stewart), treasurer of the county [OSM xvi, 78, 84].	Armooy
Greenan Road	Grianán, 'sunny land, fort or hill'	Bóthar an Ghrianáin	Greenan is a townland in the upper reaches of Glenshesk, parish of Culfeightrin	Glenshesk
Hamill Terrace	Ó hÁmaill	Ardán Uí Adhmaill	Located in the townland of Magheraboy or Bushmills, parish of Billy.	Bushmills
Harbour Road		Bóthar an Chuain	Located in the townland of Ballintoy Demesne.	Kinbane
Haughey's Row	Ó hEachaidh	Rae Uí Eachaidh	Located on Castlecat Road in the townland of Ballyness.	Ballylough

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Haw Road		Bóthar na hInse	The Haw is a minor name in Curramoney townland, Billy. It seems to be a variant of haugh, a Scots word for flat ground beside a river.	Ballylough/Bushmills
Hazeldene Drive		Céide Allt an Choill	There is a Scottish traditional song named 'Jock o' Hazeldene'.	Ballylough
Heronshaw		Garrán na gCorr	Located in Ballyness townland. Heronshaw is an archaic English word. Some sources treat this simply as a diminutive of heron, also written hernshaw, harnsey [Biology Dictionary online]. It seems unlikely that this is the meaning intended in the road-name. However, Webster's Dictionary gives it as a place where herons breed.	Ballylough
High Street		An tSráid Ard	Located in Cushendall townland.	Glenaan
Hillside Road		Bóthar na Leirge	Runs north from Armoy to Ballycastle.	Armoy/Glenshesk/Knocklayd/Moss-side & Moyarget
Huey Crescent	Mac Giolla Dhuibh	Corrán Mhic Giolla Dhuibh	Located in Ballyness townland. Huey seems to be a form of Huie, an abridged form of Macilghuie according to Black [The Surnames of Scotland]. This name is from Argyllshire and is found around Ballymoney. The Ordnance Survey Memoir for the parish of Billy mentions a Robert Huey, grocer in Bushmills. A spearhead found locally was in his possession. The family is still prominent in Bushmills.	Ballylough
Irragh Lane	lorrach, 'tail'	Lána Iorrai	Irragh is a townland in Grange of Layd parish.	Glendun
Islandarragh Road	Oileán Darach, 'island of the oaks'	Bóthar Oileán Darach	Islandarragh is a minor name in Craiganee townland. It refers to an inland feature, not a coastal island.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Islandboy Road	An tOileán Buí, 'the yellow island'	Bóthar an Oileáin Bhuí	Islandboy is a townland in Grange of Drumtullagh parish. The name refers to an inland feature, not a coastal island.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Islandmacallion Road	Oileán Mhic Ailín, 'MacAllen's land'	Bóthar Oileán Mhic Ailín	Island Macallan is a townland in Ballintoy parish. The name refers to an inland feature, not a coastal island.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Islandranny Road		Bóthar Oileán Raithní	Islandranny is a minor name in Ballybregagh townland, Loughguile parish. It refers to an inland feature, not a coastal island.	Carnmoon
Isle Road		Bóthar an Oileáin	This road runs north from Islands of Carnmoon through Islandcorr to New Buildings near Dunseverick. It may be derived from one of these names.	Carnmoon/Dunseverick
Kemp Park		Páirc Kemp	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Kenmara		Ceann Mara	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Kilcreg Park	Cill Chreige, 'burial ground of the rocky hill'	Páirc Chill Chreige	Located in the townland of Drumawillin, parish of Ramoan. Kilcreg is a townland in the same parish.	Knocklayd

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Kilmahamogue Road	Cill Mochomóg, 'Mochomóg's church',	Bóthar Chill Mochomóg	Kilmahamogue is a townland in Ballintoy parish. The Ordnance Survey Memoirs, compiled in 1835 for Ballintoy, relate the name to a burial-ground: "In Kilmahamogue, and holding of Charles	Kinbane/Moss-side & Moyarget
Kilmore Road	Cill Mhór, 'great church'	Bóthar Chill Mhór	Kilmore is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenariff
Kilnadore Brae	Coill na dTor, 'wood of the bushes'	Bráigh Choill na dTor	Kilnadore is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenariff
Kilnadore Park	Coill na dTor, 'wood of the bushes'	Páirc Choill na dTor	Kilnadore is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenaan
Kilnadore Road	Coill na dTor, 'wood of the bushes'	Bóthar Choill na dTor	Kilnadore is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenaan
Kilns Court		Cúirt na nÁitheanna	Located in the townland of Drumawillin, parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
Kilns Road		Bóthar na nÁitheanna	Located in the townlands of Drumawillin and Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Glentaisie
Kinkeel	An Ceann Caol, 'the narrow end'	An Ceann Caol	Kinkeel is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Kinramer North	Ceann Ramhar Thuaidh, 'the thick end'	Ceann Ramhar Thuaidh	Kinramer North is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Kinramer South	Ceann Ramhar Theas, 'the thick end'	Ceann Ramhar Theas	Kinramer South is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Klondyke Terrace	Klondike	Ardán Klondike	Located in the townland of Ballaghmore or Bushmills. Klondike is a region in the Yukon Territory of Canada, named from the Klondike River. This is a corruption of the Native American word throndik meaning 'river of fish' (Dictionary of Proper Names). The spelling Klondyke seems to be an error due to the influence of the English word dyke , with which Klondike has no connection.	Bushmills
Knockans	An Cnocán, 'the hillock'	An Cnocán	Knockans is a townland in the parish of Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Knocklayde View	Cnoc Leithid, 'hill of the slope'	Radharc Chnoc Leithid	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Knocklayd, 514m, is one of the highest hills in Co. Antrim. With its characteristic conical shape, it can be recognised in many views from the northern part of the county. The name of the hill contains the element leithead , 'breadth, broad expanse', which also occurs nearby in the townland of Layd and the civil parishes of Layd and Grange of Layd. Layde is a variant spelling of this name. Note, however, that Knocklayd is in Armoy parish. The summit is surmounted by a cairn known as Carn an Truagh , interpreted in the Ordnance Survey	Glentaisie
Knockmore Road	Cnoc Mór, 'great pile'	Bóthar an Chnoic Mhóir	Knockmore is a minor name in the townland of Moss-side.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Knocknacarry Avenue	Cnoc na Cora, 'hill of the weir'	Ascaill Chnoc na Cora	Knocknacarry is a townland in Layd parish.	Glendun

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Knocknacarry Crescent	Cnoc na Cora, 'hill of the weir'	Corrán Chnoc na Cora	Knocknacarry is a townland in Layd parish.	Glendun
Knocknacarry Court	Cnoc na Cora, 'hill of the weir'	Cúirt Chnoc na Cora	Knocknacarry is a townland in Layd parish.	Glendun
Knocknacarry Gardens	Cnoc na Cora, 'hill of the weir'	Garraithe Chnoc na Cora	Knocknacarry is a townland in Layd parish.	Glendun
Knocknacarry Road	Cnoc na Cora, 'hill of the weir'	Bóthar Chnoc na Cora	Knocknacarry is a townland in Layd parish.	Glendun
Knocksoghey Lane	Cnoc Sochaidhe, 'hill of the multitude'	Lána Chnoc Sochaí	Knocksoghey is a townland in Ballintoy parish.	Kinbane
Lagavara Road	Lag an Bheara (?), 'hollow of the stream'	Bóthar Lag an Bheara	Lagavara is a townland in Ballintoy parish. Legavara is a variant spelling of this name.	Dunseverick/Kinbane
Lagge Road		Bóthar an Laig	Located in the townlands of Aghrunniaght and Knockans. Lagge may be an unrecorded minor name in Armoy parish.	Armoy
Larrybane Park	Laithreach Bán, 'the white site'	Páirc na Laithrí Báine	Larrybane is a minor name in the townland of Ballintoy. Its most distinctive feature is the line of white cliffs near Carrickarede Island.	Kinbane
Layde Crescent	Leithead Lachtmhaighe, 'territory of the milk plain'	Corrán Leithid	Located in the townland of Knocknacarry. Layd is a townland. Layd and Grange of Layd are civil parishes. Layde is a variant spelling of this name.	Gleanaan/Glendun
Layde Road	Leithead Lachtmhaighe, 'territory of the milk plain'	Bóthar Leithid	Layd is a townland. Layd and Grange of Layd are civil parishes. Layde is a variant spelling of this name.	Glendun
Leyland Avenue	Leyland, an English form (?)	Ascaill Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Knocklayd
Leyland Crescent	Leyland, an English form (?)	Corrán Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Knocklayd
Leyland Court	Leyland, an English form (?)	Cúirt Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Knocklayd

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Leyland Farm	Leyland, an English form (?)	Feirm Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Glentaisie
Leyland Heights	Leyland, an English form (?)	Arda Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Knocklaid
Leyland Meadow	Leyland, an English form (?)	Cluain Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Glentaisie
Leyland Park	Leyland, an English form (?)	Páirc Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Dalriada/Glentaisie
Leyland Road	Leyland, an English form (?)	Bóthar Leyland	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Lealand or Leland was the former name of Town Parks of Ramoan [PNNI vii, Fiachra Mac Gabhann]. It is uncertain whether the name was originally coined in English (lea + land) or whether it is an anglicisation of an earlier Irish name. In the names of streets in Ballycastle the spelling Leyland may be have been adopted by analogy with the town of Leyland in Lancashire, England, best known for the manufacture of motor vehicles.	Dalriada/Glentaisie/Kinbane/Knocklaid
Lir Court		Cúirt Lir	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. In the well known tale named Oidheadh Chloinne Lir ('the death of Clann Lir') four children, Fionnuala, Aodh, Fiachra and Conn, are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile or the Sea of Moyle, the stretch of water which separates Antrim from Kintyre. They are collectively known as Clann Lir , which originally means 'children of the sea' (from Old Irish ler , an obsolete word for 'sea'. The re-interpretation of this as 'the children of (King) Lir' is a relatively late modification to the tale, which provided the basis for Shakespeare's King Lear .	Dalriada
Lisnagat Road	Lios na gCat, 'fort of the cats'	Bóthar Lios na gCat	Lisnagat is a townland in Grange of Drumtullagh parish.	Carrmoon/Moss-side & Moyarget

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Loughareema Road	Loch an Mhadhma, 'lake of the eruption/bursting'	Bóthar Loch an Mhadhma	This road runs from Cushendun towards Ballycastle via Loughareema. Loughareema, also known as the Vanishing Lake, is in Ballyvennacht townland. It is prone to flood the road after heavy rain. It can also empty very suddenly, perhaps when the silt which blocks its outflow is disturbed.	Glendun
Lurig View	perhaps Lorg Éadain, 'ridge/shank of the face'	Radharc Lorg Éadain	Located in the townland of Bay. Lurigethan is a mountain in Gortnateea townland, overlooking Glengariff. It is noted for its inland promontory fort.	Glengariff
Magheramore Road	An Machaire Mór, 'the large plain'	Bóthar an Mhachaire Mhóir	Magheramore is a townland in Ramoan parish.	Armoy/Kinbane/Moss-side & Moyarget
Maghery Road	Machaire Chaisil, 'plain of the stone fort'	Bóthar Mhachaire Chaisil	This road is presumably named from Magheracashel townland (in Ballintoy parish), through which it passes.	Kinbane
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Ballintoy.	Kinbane
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Bushmills.	Bushmills
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Cushendun.	Glendun
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Mosside.	Cammoon/Moss-side & Moyarget
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Armoy.	Armoy
Main Street		An tSráid Mhór	The main street in Glengariff/Waterfoot.	Glengariff
Manister Road	An Mhainistir, 'the monastery'	Bóthar na Mainistreach	Manister is a townland in Grange of Drumtullagh parish.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Marconi Park		Páirc Marconi	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named after Guglielmo Marconi who carried out some his experiments in wireless transmission in the summer of 1898 between Ballycastle and Rathlin Island.	Dalriada
Market Court		Cúirt an Mhargaidh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.
Market Street		Sráid an Mhargaidh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada/Glentalaisie
Market Street		Sráid an Mhargaidh	Located in the townlands of Town Parks and Turnarobert, parish of Armoy.	Armoy
Maud Cottages	Máda	Iostáin Mháda	Located in the townland of Cushendun.	Glendun

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Mayo Drive		Céide Mhaigh Eo	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
Macauley Park		Páirc Mhic Amhlaoibh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. There are several forms of this surname in Irish. However, Mac Amhlaoibh seems to be the accepted spelling for the Ulster family of this name.	Knocklayd
Meadow Court		Cúirt na Cluana	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills
Middlepark Avenue	An Pháirc Meánach, 'middle field'.	Ascaill na Páirce Meanáí	Middle Park is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenariff
Middlepark Crescent	An Pháirc Meánach, 'middle field'.	Corrán na Páirce Meanáí	Located in Kilnadore townland. Middle Park is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenaan
Middlepark Road	An Pháirc Meánach, 'middle field'.	Bóthar na Páirce Meanáí	Middle Park is a townland in Layd parish.	Glenaan/Glenariff
Mill Farm		Feirm an Mhuilinn	Located in the townland of Moss-side. Named after a nearby corn-mill (North Antrim Mill) located on the opposite side of Main Street.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Mill Lane		Lána an Mhuilinn	This road could not be located.	Not located
Mill Street		Sráid an Mhuilinn	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Glentaisie
Mill Street		Sráid an Mhuilinn	Located in the townland of Cushendall.	Glenaan
Millview		Radharc an Mhuilinn	Located in the townland of Straidbilly.	Carmoon
Montgomery Mews		Eachlann Mac Gumeraid	Located in the townland of Glebe.	Bushmills
Mossie Gardens	(?)Maigh Saighead, 'plain of the arrows'	Garraithe Mhaigh Saighead	Moss-side is a townland in Grange of Drumtullagh parish.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Mount Edwards Hill		Cnoc Thulach Éamainn	Mount Edwards is a townland in Layd parish. It may have referred to a house originally.	Glenariff
Mount Pleasant		An Cnoc Aoibhinn	Located in the townlands of Glebe and Ballaghmore or Bushmills.	Bushmills
Moyarget Road	Maigh Airgid, 'plain of silver'	Bóthar Mhaigh Airgid	Moyarget Lower and Upper are townlands in Ramoan parish.	Carmoon/Kinbane/Knocklayd/Moss-side & Moyarget
Moycraig Road	Magh Creige, 'plain of the rock'	Bóthar Mhaigh Creige	Moycraig Hamilton, Moycraig Lower, Moycraig Upper and Moycraig Macallister are townlands in Billy parish.	Carmoon/Dunseverick

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Moyle Avenue	An Mhaoil, 'the current'	Ascaill na Maoile	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Sruth na Maoile (Sea of Moyle) is the stretch of water between N. Antrim and Kintyre. In the well known tale Oidheadh Chloinne Lir (commonly known as "the Children of Lir"), the four children are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile. See Lir Court for further details.	Dalriada
Moyle Court	An Mhaoil, 'the current'	Cúirt na Maoile	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Sruth na Maoile (Sea of Moyle) is the stretch of water between N. Antrim and Kintyre. In the well known tale Oidheadh Chloinne Lir (commonly known as "the Children of Lir"), the four children are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile. See Lir Court for further details.	Dalriada
Moyle Park	An Mhaoil, 'the current'	Páirc na Maoile	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Sruth na Maoile (Sea of Moyle) is the stretch of water between N. Antrim and Kintyre. In the well known tale Oidheadh Chloinne Lir (commonly known as "the Children of Lir"), the four children are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile. See Lir Court for further details.	Dalriada
Moyle Road	An Mhaoil, 'the current'	Bóthar na Maoile	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Sruth na Maoile (Sea of Moyle) is the stretch of water between N. Antrim and Kintyre. In the well known tale Oidheadh Chloinne Lir (commonly known as "the Children of Lir"), the four children are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile. See Lir Court for further details.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada/Glentaisie
Moyle View	An Mhaoil, 'the current'	Radharc na Maoile	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Sruth na Maoile (Sea of Moyle) is the stretch of water between N. Antrim and Kintyre. In the well known tale Oidheadh Chloinne Lir (commonly known as "the Children of Lir"), the four children are turned into swans by their evil stepmother Aoife and banished for 900 years. They spend 300 years swimming on Sruth na Maoile. See Lir Court for further details.	Glennan
Murlough Road	Murlag, 'sea inlet' + E. bay', a development from ~Muirbolc, 'sea-bag, i.e. lagoon, inlet of the sea'	Bóthar an Mhurlaig	Murlough Bay is located in the townland of Goodland. There are some very early references to this name, such one in the Annals of Ulster in 731 AD, which show that the original form of this name was Murbolg , lit. 'sea-bag'. Over the centuries it has come to be re-interpreted, the current English spelling suggesting Murlach , 'sea inlet'. An Mhurlag is a form which appears in the poetry of Aodh Mac Domhnaill c. 1845. This form has been adopted, but the word has been treated as masculine to reflect the derivation from bolg .	Glenshesk
New Street		An tSráid Nua	Located in the townland of Mill Five Acres.	Armoy
North Street		An tSráid Thuaidh	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada
Novally Road	Nuabhaile, 'new town'	Bóthar an Nuabhaile	Novally is a townland in Ramoan parish.	Kinbane/Knocklayd
Oakley Park		Páirc Oakley	Located in the townland of Straidbilly.	Carmoon

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Old Coastguard Station		An Seanstáisiún Garda Cóta	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Dalriada
Orby Drive		Céide Orby	Located in the townlands of Carnmoon and Straidbilly.	Carnmoon
Ossian Avenue		Ascaill Oisín	Located in the townland of Warren. Ossian's Grave is the name of a court tomb in the townland of Lubitavish. Ossian is an anglicised form of Oisín , the Finn cycle hero who returned from the Otherworld and died on dismounting from his horse.	Glenariff
Ouig	An Úig, 'the bay or inlet'	An Úig	Ouig is a minor name in the townland of Demesne (Rathlin Island).	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Parkanore Estate	Páirc an Óir, 'field of the gold'	Eastát Pháirc an Óir	Located in the townland of Warren. Parkanore may be an unrecorded minor name in Glenariff.	Glenariff
Portbraddan Road	Port Bradán, 'port of the salmon'	Bóthar Phort Bradán	Portbraddan is a settlement with a harbour in Templastragh townland. Port Bradden is a variant spelling of this name.	Dunseverick
Priestland Road	Fearann an tSagairt, 'land of the priest'	Bóthar Fhearann an tSagairt	Priestland East and West are townlands in Dunluce parish.	Bushmills
Primrose Hill		Cnoc na Sabhaircíní	Located in the townland of Ballyness.	Ballylough
Prospect Court		Cúirt na Radharc	Located in the townland of Ballymacdoe.	Glenaan
Quay Road		Bóthar na Cé	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Railway Terrace		Ardán an Iarnróid	Located in the townland of Mill Five Acres. Armoy was once served by the Ballymoney to Ballycastle narrow gauge railway.	Armoy
Ramoan Avenue	Rath Muáin, 'Muán's fort'	Ascaill Ráth Muáin	Located in the townland of Drumawillin. Ramoan is a parish in the barony of Cary.	Knocklayd
Ramoan Court	Rath Muáin, 'Muán's fort'	Cúirt Ráth Muáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Ramoan is a parish in the barony of Cary.	Knocklayd
Ramoan Gardens	Rath Muáin, 'Muán's fort'	Garraithe Ráth Muáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Ramoan is a parish in the barony of Cary.	Knocklayd
Ramoan Road	Rath Muáin, 'Muán's fort'	Bóthar Ráth Muáin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Ramoan is a parish in the barony of Cary.	Glentaisie/Knocklayd
Rathlin Avenue	Reachlainn, meaning uncertain	Ascaill Reachlann	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named after Rathlin Island.	Dalriada
Rathlin Court	Reachlainn, meaning uncertain	Cúirt Reachlann	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named after Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Rathlin Road	Reachlainn, meaning uncertain	Bóthar Reachlann	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named after Rathlin Island.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada
Rathlin View	Reachlainn, meaning uncertain	Radharc Reachlann	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named after Rathlin Island.	Dalriada
Red Road		An Bóthar Rua	Located in the townlands of Ballynastraid and Prolusk. Apparently the road was so named from the reddish soil particularly noticeable at the east end.	Dunseverick
Riverdale Lodge		Lóiste Ghleann na hAbhann	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills
Riverside Close		Clós Chois Abhann	Located in the townland of Cushendall.	Glenaan
Riverside Court		Cúirt Chois Abhann	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills
Riverside Road		Bóthar Chois Abhann	Located in the townlands of Ballylough and Ballylough More.	Ballylough
Riverview Crescent		Corrán Radharc na hAbhann	Located in the townland of Cushendun.	Glendun
Rockfield Gardens		Garraithe Ghort na gCarraigeacha	Located in the townland of Moycraig Hamilton.	Carmoon
Runkerry Road	Rinn Chaorach (?), 'headland of sheep'	Bóthar Rinn Chaorach	Runkerry Point, Runkerry Cave and Runkerry House are minor names in Ardihannon townland. There are few historical forms for this name. Rinn Chaorach is offered as the most likely origin of this name, pending further research.	Bushmills/Dunseverick
Seaview Terrace		Ardán Radharc na Mara	Located in the townland of Carrivemurphy.	Glennariff
Seneirl Road	Suí an Iarla (?), 'seat of the earl'	Bóthar Shuí an Iarla	Seneirl is a townland in the parish of Dunluce. There are few historical forms for this name. Suí an Iarla is offered as the most likely origin of this name, pending further research.	Ballylough
Shanes Park		Páirc Sheáin	Located in the townland of Cushendun.	Glendun
Shore Road		Bóthar na Trá	Located in the townlands of Faughil and Moneyvart.	Glenaan
Shore Street		Sráid na Trá	Located in the townlands of Cushendall and Faughil.	Glenaan
Silverspring		Tobar an Airgid	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Silverstream Court		Cúirt Shruthán an Airgid	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Springfields		Goirt an Tobair	Located in the townland of Straidbilly.	Carnmoon
Station Road		Bóthar an Stáisiúin	Located in the townland of Turnarobert. Armoy was once served by the Ballymoney to Ballycastle narrow gauge railway.	Armoy/Bonamargy & Rathlin
Station Street		Sráid an Stáisiúin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Ballycastle was once served by a narrow gauge railway from Ballymoney.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Straid Road	An tSráid, 'the street/village'	Bóthar na Sráide	This is the main road from Ballycastle to Bushmills. Straid is a minor name in the townland of Croaghmore.	Armoy/Ballylough/Bushmills/Carnmoon/Dunseverick/
Strand Apartments		Árasáin na Trá	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Strand Cottages		Iostáin na Trá	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Strand Court		Cúirt na Trá	Located in the townland of Gortamaddy or White Hall.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Strandview Park		Páirc Radharc na Trá	Located in the townland of Sleans.	Glendun
Strandview Avenue		Ascaill Radharc na Trá	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Dalriada
Strandview Gardens		Garraithe Radharc na Trá	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Strandview Road		Bóthar Radharc na Trá	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
Stroan Road	An Sruthán, 'the stream'	Bóthar an tSrutháin	Stroan is a townland in the parish of Armoy.	Armoy/Glenshesk
Stroanshesk Park	Sruthán Seisc, 'sedgy stream'	Páirc Shruthán Seisce	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Stroanshesk may be an unrecorded minor name in this area.	Dalriada
Tavnaghan Lane	Tamhnachán, 'a small field'	Lána Thamhnacháin	Tavnaghan is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glendun
Tavnaghan Terrace	Tamhnachán, 'a small field'	Ardán Thamhnacháin	Tavnaghan is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glendun
The Abbey		An Mhainistir	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Named from the nearby St. Brigid's Abbey.	Glentaisie
The Bay Apartments		Árasáin an Chuain	Located in the townland of Cushendun. Named after Cushendun Bay.	Glendun

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
The Diamond		An Diamant	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. "In Ulster place-names the element #diamond# can apply either to a rural crossroads or a market square in the middle of a town" [Dict. Ulst. PN]. It is the second sense which applies in this case.	Bonamargy & Rathlin/Glenties
The Everglades		Na hOllriascanna	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. The Florida Everglades are so called because glade is a term for a swamp and #ever# refers to their huge extent ('continuing forever') [Dictionary of Proper Names].	Dalriada
The Ferns		Raithneachán	Located in the townlands of Knockanavery and Moyaver Upper.	Armoys
The Marine Apartments		Árasáin na Mara	Located off North Street in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Bonamargy & Rathlin
The Mews		An Eachlann	Located off Leyland Road in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan.	Glenties
The Park		An Pháirc	Located in the townland of Park.	Armoys
The Square		An Chearnóg	Located in the townland of Cushendun.	Glendun
Toberdoney Road		Bóthar Thobar Domhnaigh	Toberdoney is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Carrmoon
Toberkeagh Road	An Tobar Caoch, 'the disused/dry well'	Bóthar an Tobair Chaoch	Toberkeagh is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Carrmoon/Dunseverick
Torr Road	An Tor, 'tor'	Bóthar an Toir	Torr Road is the hilly coast road from Ballyvoy to Cushendun via Torr Head. It passes through the townlands of East and West Torr and several other townlands containing the element #tor#, all in the parish of Culfeightrin.	Glendun/Glenties
Tramway Drive		Céide an Trambhealaigh	Located in the townland of Ballaghmore or Bushmills. The tramway from Portrush to Bushmills and on to the Giant's Causeway was completed in 1887. The new Causeway tramway runs from Bushmills to the Giant's Causeway and is normally steam operated. It carried its first passengers in 2002.	Bushmills
Tromra Road		Bothar Thromra	Tromra is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Gleanna/Glendun
Tromra Terrace		Ardán Thromra	Tromra is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Glendun
Tully Crescent	An Tulaigh, 'the hillock'	Corrán na Tulai	Tully is a townland in the parish of Layd.	Gleanna
Turreagh Terrace	Tuar Riabhach, 'streaked cattle-field'	Ardán an Tuair Riabhaigh	Tureagh is a townland in the parish of Armoys. Turreagh is a variant spelling of this name.	Armoys

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Turnarobert Park	Tuar na Roibeard, 'cattle-field of the people called Robert'	Páirc Thuar na Roibeard	Turnarobert is a townland in the parish of Armoy.	Armoy
Turnarobert Terrace	Tuar na Roibeard, 'cattle-field of the people called Robert'	Ardán Thuar na Roibeard	Turnarobert is a townland in the parish of Armoy.	Armoy
Turraloskin Park	Tuar an Luscáin (?), 'cattle-field of the small cave'	Páirc Thuar an Luscáin	Turraloskin is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Moss-side & Moyarget
Urbal Road	Earball, 'a tail'	Bóthar an Earbail	Urbal is a townland in the parish of Billy.	Carnmoon
Warren Park		Páirc an Choinicéir	Warren is a townland in the parish of Layd. The village of Glenariff/Waterfoot is mainly in this townland.	Glenariff
White Hall Avenue		Ascaill an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Close		Clós an Halla Bháin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the same parish.	Knocklayd
White Hall Crescent		Corrán an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Court		Cúirt an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Drive		Céide an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Gardens		Gairdíní an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Heights		Arda an Halla Bháin	Located in the townland of Town Parks, parish of Ramoan. Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the same parish.	Knocklayd
White Hall Park		Páirc an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall Place		Plás an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
White Hall View		Radharc an Halla Bháin	Gortamaddy or White Hall is a townland in the parish of Ramoan.	Knocklayd
Whitepark Cottages		Iostáin na Páirce Báine	Located in the townland of Gortamaddy or White Hall, parish of Ramoan. White Park is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Knocklayd
Whitepark Court		Cúirt na Páirce Báine	Located in the townland of Gortamaddy or White Hall, parish of Ramoan. White Park is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Knocklayd

Street / Road	Derived from	Irish form	Notes	E. W.
Whitepark Drive		Céide na Páirce Báine	Located in the townland of Gortamaddy or White Hall, parish of Ramoan. White Park is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy.	Knocklayd
Whitepark Road		Bóthar na Páirce Báine	White Park is a townland in the parish of Ballintoy. This road skirts White Park Bay without quite passing through the townland of White Park.	Bushmills/Dunseverick/Kinbane/Knocklayd
Woodland Court		Cúirt na Coille	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills
Woodvale Park		Páirc Ghleanntán na Coille	Located in the townland of Clogher North.	Bushmills